IC 4-15-1

Chapter 1. Indiana Personnel Advisory Board and Director

IC 4-15-1-1

Creation; membership; compensation; oath

Sec. 1. (a) There is created the Indiana personnel advisory board, which shall consist of the state personnel director and six (6) citizen members, to be appointed by the governor, not more than four (4) of whom shall be adherents of the same political party. The governor shall appoint successors for the citizen members for terms of four (4) years. Every member appointed shall serve until his successor has been appointed and qualified. Any vacancy occurring in the membership of the board for any cause shall be filled by appointment of the governor for the unexpired term.

(b) The members of the board shall be citizens of the state who have knowledge of and will encourage the practice of professional personnel administration in public employment. No member of the board shall hold, or be a candidate for, any elective public office, and upon acceptance of any such appointment, or upon such candidacy, the term of a member of the board shall expire. Upon the acceptance of any other remunerative appointment to public office, the term of a member shall expire.

(c) The members of the board shall receive as compensation a salary which shall be established by the budget agency and approved by the governor and in addition thereto, actual and necessary traveling expenses incurred in the performance of their duties.

(d) Before entering upon the discharge of official duties, each member of the board shall take and subscribe to an oath of office, which shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state.

Organization and meetings

Sec. 3. Upon the appointment of the members of the Indiana personnel advisory board, the board shall meet in the rooms provided for the board and assume the duties of office. Four (4) members of the board constitute a quorum for the transaction of business and a majority of votes cast are required for the adoption or approval of any official action. The board shall elect one (1) of the members of the board as chairman and another member of the board as vice-chairman. The persons so elected respectively as chairman and vice-chairman shall hold office for one (1) year and until their successors are elected and qualified. The board shall hold such regular and special meetings each year as it may prescribe by resolution, and shall meet on call of the chairman. Notice of each meeting other than the regular meetings designated by resolution of the board shall be given in writing to each member by the secretary of the board.
